Andis Wines Chosen to Participate at CabFranc-A-Palooza

The Sierra Foothills winery is one of 25 wineries featured in a grand tasting as the event finale.

Plymouth, CA (May 23, 2023) – Andis Wines will be featured at CabFranc-A-Palooza, the largest Cabernet Franc festival. The event will take place in Livermore from June 1 through June 4.

Over the course of four days, more than 35 wineries will celebrate all things Cabernet Franc, ending with 25 wineries handpicked to pour for a grand tasting on June 4, which includes Andis Wines that will pour its 2020 Cabernet Franc and 2021 Curse of Knowledge.

"It was a bottle of Andis Cabernet Franc that got me hooked on this land. I had no idea about Sierra Foothills until that bottle of wine. To be able to share this with others who do not know about our region is a meaningful honor," said Lorenzo Muslia, Andis Partner and National Sales Manager.

Award-winning wines from the Livermore Valley, France, Napa Valley, Sonoma, Paso Robles, Oregon, Washington State, Texas, the North Fork of Long Island, Sierra Foothills, Santa Barbara, Santa Cruz Mountains, Virginia will be featured throughout the week.

"Andis has been making Cabernet Franc from the beginning. It's been a labor of love for our founders, Janis and Andy, so we're doing the very best we can with it," said Mark Fowler, Andis' Estate Winemaker.

General admission is currently $99 per person. VIP tickets are $125 per person, which includes an extra hour of event, reserve wines only available to VIP guests, as well as barrel samples from participating wineries. For tickets and more details, visit cabfrancapalooza.com.

Andis Wines has been producing award-winning wines focusing on varietal correctness in the Sierra Foothills for ten years. Founders, Andy Friedlander and Janis Akuna, purchased the vineyard with a vision to create a forward-thinking winery, built with a green design and sustainable practices.
