

ANDIS WINES

2015 Old Vine Zinfandel Original Grandpere Vineyard

WINEMAKER NOTES

Planted in 1869, the Original Grandpere Vineyard is one of the truly iconic California vineyards and the oldest documented Zinfandel vineyard in America, still in production with less than 2 tons per acre.

The California State Fair named it Vineyard of the Year in 2016. Farmed by only four families over its 140+ year history, the vineyard produces a very small amount of fruit each year.

Juicy with great acidity and hints of blueberry and smoke, it's all the things one wants from an old vine Zinfandel without being over the top. Pair with cured meats and tapas.
